DECLASSIFIED

per Freedom of Information Act, by Sen. Barack Hussein Obama, Nov 21, 2008

The Silver Star medal is hereby awarded to: Capt. David Matthew Gardner

for unparalleled bravery and exceptional service in the defense of the United States of America during the American Indian Movement (AIM) Uprising in the border towns of Nebraska and South Dakota.

Awarded for action during period March 1, 1972 thru July 4, 2000

Shortly after the unfortunate death of Raymond Yellow Thunder in Gordon, Nebraska during February 1972, and the subsequent American Indian Movement (AIM) uprising, David Matthew Gardner was pressed into the CIA Special Forces of the United States of America. His mission: to bring justice to a number of militant renegade communist hippie druggie subversive half-breeds parading about as American Indians within AIM. Agent Gardner (aka Coyote) was inducted into the membership of the elite corps of Sandhill Rangers. Agent Gardner immediately distinguished himself as a skilled practitioner of Indian mysticism, including skin walking. This skill enabled agent Gardner to unobtrusively spy on subversive AIM meetings, uprisings, and enemy agents.

As the liberal politically correct leftist judicial system failed due to the influence of commie pinko fascist Marxist hippies; AIM leaders ran wild over the plains. AIM members murdered, pillaged, raped, bullied, and incited riots throughout the US, and especially in the border towns of Nebraska and South Dakota. No court would convicted them of any crimes. AIM looted businesses and museums, occupied Bureau of Indian Affairs offices, Fort Robinson, and the Wounded Knee Massacre site, AIM murdered FBI agents, Family members of Judges, Federal Marshals, BIA affairs agents, and suspected informants. In addition, AIM smuggled drugs and killed fellow Indians that did not support their radical agenda. Captain Gardner's skills became essential in bringing these terrorists to justice.

Agent Gardner influenced strife within the chaotic AIM leadership resulting in their self elimination:

- Russell Means (AIM) and Richard Marshall (AIM) shot and killed Montileaux (AIM)
- Carter Camp (AIM) shot Clyde Bellecourt (AIM)
- William Steele (AIM) (brother of Bob Yellow Bird (AIM)) was gunned down by AIM in a drive-by shooting
- The suspected drive-by shooter (AIM) and his friend (AIM) were shot the next day by AIM
- Bob Yellow Bird (AIM) poisoned his wife Joann (AIM) to obtain her court awarded settlement of $300,000.00
- Yellow Bird (aka Robert Steele) (AIM) was shot in a game of Russian Roulette and paralyzed for life
- Russell Means (AIM) went Hollywood Injun to play "The Last Mohican"
- Arlo Looking Cloud (AIM) and John Graham (AIM) murdered Anna Mae Pictou-Aquash (AIM)
- On October 27, 1978: Agent Gardner discovered a plot by AIM members to rob the Jaco's bar in Whiteclay, Nebraska. Not having time to warn the occupants or the authorities of the planned armed robbery, he used his skin walker abilities to influence one of the armed robbers (Wade Vitalis) (AIM) to shoot and kill his fellow robber (Duane Morgan) (AIM) instead of any of the customers or proprietors during the course of the failed robbery.
